Property Description

Once you drive through the gated entry, you will understand what it means to be private and secure! Right away you will be greeted by an amazing addition built in 2013. Due to the gentle slope of the terrain, this brilliantly designed addition was raised approximately 15 feet, supported by massive (2'x2') concrete pillars. Not an earthquake on the planet will rock this pad! The space beneath this elevated addition was not wasted, playing host to a 3 car – car port with a very comfortable and cool sitting area for relaxing on those exceptionally hot days! In the 1500 sq foot owner's flat above, the extra-large windows are perfectly spaced and placed in a calculated manner to invite in the brilliant ocean breezes, along with amazing ocean views, every minute of the day. Three extra-large patio doors exit to a large covered terrace to sit and enjoy everything there is right in front of you; gardens,(white-water) ocean views, breezes, sunsets, and the list goes on! This is open-air living at its finest.
