Property Description

This stylish boutique luxury home complex is one of those one of kind properties that everyone speaks about staying at after they have visited. Located in the up and coming southern zone of Costa Rica this is a unique purchase for the individual looking to start over in Costa Rica with instant income. The seamless integration of architecture, landscape, and the interior design that included local hardwood furniture gives this spectacular six bedroom complex an open tropical feel that immediately invokes relaxation. The two building rest gentle on a cliff top over looking the pacific ocean on side and the lush jungles of Costa Rica on the other side and is the definition of indoor/outdoor living. The two buildings accommodate many guests, yet is designed for all to enjoy quiet, privacy and seclusion. A intimate, magical courtyard around the pool area contrasts the dramatic ocean view setting allowing for pure relaxation for all guests.
