Property Description

Rimmed by a lush rainforest ridgeline, this 140 acre farm has 13 segregated ocean view lots with magnificent viewslooking straight down on the sandbar point of Uvita, or better known as the "Whales Tail"You will be wakened by the roaring of the howler monkey, while watching the toucan take flight thrusting from one ridge to another, while watching the fog rise from the river valley below, I am not sure that it gets any better than this, if you want seclusion, privacy, good clean air to breathe, and a dynamite view to the sea!Internal access road runs through primal rainforest leading to the old homestead and farm area which is now 13 building sites. Year rounbd water flows through the farm, with multiple waterfalls and cascades.Property runs to the top of the ridge and also at the end of the road making it super exclusive and private, as well as clean and free from any potential contaminated run off.
