Property Description

Property in a very Tico-style community, surrounded by people dedicated to field work. A completely flat land planted with coffee. It also has a little house that has what is necessary to be inhabited either by the person in charge of maintaining the place, or making some modifications and living in it. At the rear part of the property, the new highway will be built heading to San Carlos. It's time for you to make your dream come true... Call Coldwell Banker Pura Vida Paradise today for a showing!
