Property Description

This beautiful 2 bedroom home is located in the town of Uvita. It is only a 2 min drive from the paved coastal highway and a short walk from the center of town where you will find everything you need from banks to restaurants to grocery stores. Uvita is known for it's national marine park which features the whales tale!! The beaches are only 5 minutes away!The home is very well built and has many high end finishings. Both of the bedrooms open up to the large pool deck and pool. The master has an on suite bathroom and the guest room has access to the half bath. The home comes fully furnished including stainless steel appliances. The living room and kitchen have a nice open floor plan and high ceilings which make it very comfortable. The home also has AC throughout. There are solar panels that are tied into the grid so that there is little to no electricity bill and there is also a solar hot water heater.
