Property Description

Cabuya, a small fishing village on the Nicoya Peninsula of Costa Rica. It is located a few miles from the popular tourist areas of Montezuma, Malpais and Santa Teresa, and is visited by mountain bikers, hikers, surfers and water sports enthusiasts. This beautiful property neighbours our the first nature reserve in Costa Rica, Cabo Blanco Reserva. It consists of a total of 8 hectares. This listing is for 1 hectare in front of the public road however there is the option to buy the entirety of the property. The property touches the public road so water and electricity are right on site. This land is completely flat and provides a solid foundation, making ideal for building multiple structures.
