Property Description

The Model Home L is a very special one, this amazing ocean view home will be strategically built on 2 lots (32&33) to maximize the space and allow for the future homeowners to enjoy complete independence, as they will not have immediate neighbors near them, instead they will be surrounded by the luscious garden area all around this home. The real charm here will be the year-round breathtaking views towards Langosta Beach and the National Park Marino de las Baulas. Upon walking into the foyer, you will be led into the extensive great room area, this amazing open space combines the kitchen, dining and living room areas, while the floor-to-ceiling sliding doors connect directly onto the equally large, covered terrace, expanding this space even more and allowing for the entire area to have a direct view towards the ocean, perfect for enjoying the sunset from every spot available. The vast open terrace invites family and friends to enjoy a direct connection with nature while grilling on the BBQ or relaxing in a sparkling private pool overlooking onto the Pacific Ocean.
