Property Description

Jardin Casa Zona Azul offers the rare opportunity to acquire a truly turn-key luxury property with the versatility to utilize the property in several different ways. The intelligent architectural design and generous lot size means the property can be used as a private retreat center (with plenty of room to expand), a truly unique vacation rental, or even as a family estate. All elements of this property have been completed to a very high standard and the sale comes with everything included, even the golf kart! Located close enough to all of the amenities found in Guiones but far enough away to easily escape the crowd and enjoy the tranquility of the nature. Beautifully designed, Jardin Casa Zona Azul perfectly compliments the acre-plus lot that backs onto protected parkland, giving it a luxurious and private feel. The property features a superbly presented main open building that includes a large infinity pool with pool deck, a jungle canopy height open air workout/yoga studio, large open air dining/common space, stunning professional kitchen, garage and its own bar.
