Property Description

Hermosa casa de Dos Plantas en Condominio en Cipreses de Curridabat. This beautiful property is on two floors, very cozy, has very spacious spaces and luxury finishes. It is ideal for a large family who likes to do social activities as it has a large terrace and a good size garden. The distribution is as follows: on the first floor we find a nice hall next to an office which is equipped with modern furniture and a beautifully decorated guest bathroom. The kitchen is independent, with granite countertops and an island as a breakfast area as well as a good size pantry. The kitchen also has a room that works as a family room. The laundry room is also quite large and communicates with the utility room which has its private bathroom. It has access to the patio. The dining room is also independent and the living room has a nice bar that is incorporated into the social area through large windows. On the second floor we find a large TV room that opens onto a balcony, the master bedroom with access to the balcony as well, the bathroom and its walking closet.
