Property Description

This beautiful luxury home sits right on the edge of the Pacific Ocean, with sparkling blue water and a miles long sandy beach perfect for those long walks and incredible sunsets. While this home is new with all the modern conveniences, Thermador appliances and designer furnishings, it is also extremely comfortable and inviting; just right for enjoying a quiet afternoon on the veranda or entertaining a full house. This mostly deserted beach is well known for it's beautiful homes with lush landscaping of palm trees, native flowers and plants, and an incredible ocean view that is second to none. Situated between Jaco and Manuel Antonio, just one and a half hours from San Jose airport, you are close to shopping and everything you need but are out of the mainstream in paradise. Restaurants and grocery stores are within 5 minutes of your villa. Banks, doctors, dentists and all the services of town are within 20 minutes either direction.
