Property Description

Lot del Ora is located near the bend of the largest river in the area, the Ora River, from which bears its name. Located within a short drive of some of the area's most popular places like Playas Carrillo and Camaronal (10 min drive) and the growing town of Samara (15 min drive). This lot features a view of the mountains and surrounding valleys, which facilitates the ability to enjoy memorable hikes to the river, due to its proximity. There is direct access from the public street to the lot, public services on the site, already ready to build in ! One or more homes can be built on the lot, taking advantage of its geographical location of natural terraced levels. This is an excellent opportunity for those looking to enjoy tranquility, privacy and at the same time the scenic beauty of one of the most beautiful areas of the Costa Rican coast.
