Property Description

There is really nothing more intoxicating than a tropical evening—the sky turning from gold to deep blue, the first star of the night appearing followed by thousands more, palm fronds dancing in the soft, warm breeze and backlit by a full moon. You can enjoy an entire year of twilights just like that from the porches and pavilions of your new home on half an acre in paradise—Casa Luna in Rancho Villa Real. The 1400-square-foot home is all on one level and has high, vaulted ceilings, ceiling fans, and ACs that make for a cool interior, and wood-look ceramic tile floors that add a rustic warmth. Living and kitchen areas are open-concept—perfect for you, your friends, and family to cook, dine and relax together. Meal prep will be a breeze in the spacious kitchen with its ample, custom wood cabinetry, granite countertops, and stainless-steel appliances. Both bedrooms have floor-to-ceiling windows and private bathrooms with custom vanities and granite countertops.
