Property Description

Unique Raw Luxury Home in Tamarindo a magnificent villa in the iconic beach town of Tamarindo. Situated outside the main town and surrounded by woods, this property boasts one of the best locations in Guanacaste's Northern Pacific Coast. Despite its air of privacy, Unique Raw Luxury Home in Tamarindo is within walking distance of everything Tamarindo has to offer. This vibrant beach town is a well-known surfing destination with many locations where visitors can pick up the sport or practice it in favorable conditions. Tamarindo has a variety of amenities, including fantastic dining establishments, serving both regional and international cuisine, as well as numerous gift shops, supermarkets, and a few bars and clubs. This house, called Casa Agua, embodies the word "raw" perfectly. It is surrounded by nature both inside and out, and it has furnished wood and concrete in its natural state, making the most out of Costa Rica's opulent environment.
