Property Description

Casa Palmira is one of the most beautiful beachfront properties on north Coco Beach. This 5 bedroom, 5 bathroom home is constructed in the traditional Costa Rican wood frame and block style. The main room and the two front bedrooms have large windows and screens with a beautiful ocean view. A large main living, dining, and kitchen area makes it simple to entertain family and friends. Traditional ceramic floor tiles add a charming touch, while new granite counters make the kitchen feel more modern. Four of the bedrooms have ensuite bathrooms, while the fifth bathroom serves both the main area and the final bathroom. Behind the kitchen is a spacious pantry. The land has landscaped gardens and lawns, as well as an irrigation system that uses well water. This home has town water and septic and is just steps from the paved road. It is zoned mixed commercial and residential, which means it could be converted into a commercial hotel or other hospitality uses.
