Property Description

Howler House is a brand-new modern tropical design 2-bedroom home nestled in the hills of Playa Pelada. The home's elegant design draws in natural light offering surreal panoramic views from every room. Relax to the sound of crashing waves of Playa Pelada and enjoy views of the jungle canopy and Guiones's distant ocean breaks. The property is home to several of Nicoya Peninsula's well-known wildlife animals; anteaters, Coati, Iguanas, and Blue Morpho butterflies to name a few. The property is a superhighway for Howler monkey troops that move through the property's many trees and even along the Howler House roof. This special hilltop location in conjunction with the home's innovative modern design maximizes the ocean and mountain breezes for a natural cooling cross ventilation system. Large windows and floor-to-ceiling sliding glass doors create a dynamic indoor-outdoor unforgettable experience with the surrounding natural environment.
