Property Description

As you enter this Mediterranean dream home the first thing that jumps out is the travertine tile imported from Italy contrasted with the quartz countertops and whitewashed walls. As you walk back into the yard you are immersed once again in the Mediterranean feel with the Coralline white coral stone against the blue sky and ocean view. Feel the breeze as it comes off the ocean in the afternoon while lying in the hammock. Take a dip in the pool at sunset then relax after a delicious meal prepped in the outdoor kitchen. A true tropical oasis where the jungle meets the ocean. About The House No details have been overlooked, as the owner's attention to detail and the finest of finishes are apparent throughout. The roof was built with 8 CM vs the standard 3 CM panel sheeting. It is quiet and energy/temperature efficient. The house comes completely furnished with imported Italian leather couches and handmade, custom tables and chairs from Alajuela with Guanacaste & Teak woods.
