Property Description

Amazing ocean view parcel of 2 acres offering the most stunning views looking down on to the Protected Bay of Pinuela, and backed by a 96 acre shared reserve of rainforest bordering the Pinuela River with multiple cascades and pools. Short access off the coast highway passing through pristine rainforest and crossing over year round stream that leads you up to the 2 acre building site that is large and level and the views looking in to the Bay and up and down the coast and back to the majestic mountain range make this parcel of land a one of a kind premium view lot! This parcel and the neighboring parcel share the private access leading to each parcel as well as the 96 acre reserve backing both parcels, offering the privacy and in harmony with the rainforest backing the ocean view building site. Bay of Pinuela is the southern tip of the Ballena Marina National Park, and from the building site, you can view the Humpback Whales breaching within close proximity of the shoreline.
