Property Description

This 10 acre wonder comes loaded with food supply, over a dozen mango trees, water apples, avacados, mandarins, oranges, pejiabyes, bananas and several others will keep anyone from going hungry if times get tough and personal food supply becomes most important. This parcel gently slopes downhill in the direction of the 600 foot Diamante waterfall with a 250 meter private road leading to a large plateau overlooking the Diamante river valley, where you will find a quaint little octagonal cabin with a viewing platform at the level of the canopy below. Property has a spring and creek as a common boundary on the back side, and a cascading creek with waterfall on the other side. If you're looking to live with lots of peace and harmony with nature, and enjoy the tico culture, this is the right place for you! Come and check it out!
